Keeping it REAL

Members of the Krewe of Real People decorate coconuts for their parade in Bay St. Louis Tuesday. More than 800 coconuts will be thrown during the parade. Krewe members spend many hours making the coveted throws. The parade will roll at 1 p.m. on Mardi Gras Day in Old Town in Bay St. Louis.

Years of tradition are behind Krewe of Real People parade in BSL

BY BENNIE SHALLBETTER

Though the founders of the Krewe of Real People weren't bragging when they chose the name for their Mardi Gras krewe, it does really describe the members of the small Bay St. Louis group. They are just the latest in a long line of revelers, they say, who are dedicated to keeping the spirit of Mardi Gras alive. "To me this is like Christmas for the adults," said Sandra Price, the current Captain.

The Ebony Pearls, under the direction of Sandra Price, were a traditional part of the Krewe of Real People Parade for many years. Many of these little girls are mothers themselves now.

"During the holidays you are busy with family, but at Mardi Gras we can let the kid in us come out. It's a day set aside for inspired by two 1980s television series."

Kellar, Carver only local candidates to face no opposition

Only two local candidates, Chancery Clerk Timothy A. (Tim) Kellar and Justice Court Judge, District Three Tommy Carver, Sr. are unopposed in the August primary and November General elections, according to Pam Metzler, Hancock County circuit clerk.

The circuit clerk's office - which is normally closed Saturdays - was open yesterday until 5 p.m., the final qualifying deadline for the August primaries and November general elections.

In district-level races, where candidates file with their respective state parties, all area incumbents are seeking re-election and face challengers. They have to file with their respective party.

Incumbent Circuit Clerk Pamela Thomas Metzler is being challenged by Herman Johnson in the Democratic primary. Republican Emilie Magnon qualified for the circuit clerk's seat on Saturday.

Board of supervisor incumbent in district five Jay Cuevas is being challenged by Joe Nicaise in the Democratic primary. E. Martin Thompson, Perry Berens and Nell Frisbie are seeking the Republican nomination. Robert Boudin, Sr., withdrew from the Democratic primary.

Supervisor President Roderick (Rocky) Pullman in district two, has

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's February Coffee Call was hosted by Second Street Elementary and featured Dr. William A. Lewis, president of Pearl River Community College. Following the breakfast, Dr. Lewis and several PRCC staff joined in a tour of county facilities as possibilities to build a greater presence for the community college in Hancock County.

Mardi Gras is over Tuesday, but Red Beans & Rice Cook-Off is just around the corner

Entrants sought for American Cancer Society benefit at Casino Magic BSL

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Publisher Emeritus

The red beans are soaking and the secret ingredients and recipes are being dusted off, as Hancock County prepares for the annual American Cancer Society's Red Beans & Rice Cook-Off scheduled for Monday, April 28.

Bay St. Louis Mayor Eddie Favre is this year's general chairman, with co-chairman, Bay St. Louis Fire Chief Robert Gavagnie.

At this year's preliminary meeting, Favre said, "Last year we had 31 entries and our goal this year is to have over 40 competitors."

"This fun-filled fund raiser to benefit the American Cancer Society has outgrown the Hancock County Civic Center and we have made arrangements to have the event at Casino Magic.

"This will give us more room for the competitors, as well as the hundreds from the community who come in to enjoy a good old fashioned meal and at the same time benefit a wonderful cause.

"Our big need now is to have competitors, we will have the space at Casino Magic, so we will need previous competitors as well as new ones."

The event takes places from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Among those attending the recent organizational meeting for the event was David Mayley, chairman of the Cancer Society's Relay for Life which will be held on Friday, May 2, at the Walking Track in front of Hancock Medical Center."

Favre and Mayley agreed to help support each other in their respective benefits, suggesting that maybe they could use the slogan of, "Fill up on beans for lunch on Monday and walk them off on Friday night."

A push this year will be for the addition of a family category in the competition, to go along with the government, organizations, businesses and restaurants.

There will be additional awards this year Favre said. There will be judges awards in each category, in addition to Peoples Choice awards in each category, also an overall award by the Judges and Peoples Choice.

Once again there will be an award for the Best Corn Bread, Showmanship and the Camellia Bean Award for the most unique beans.

Persons interested in helping in anyway can call Barbara Redding at 467-9092, or Sandra Hoda, 467-4425.

Camellia red beans will be supplied by their distributor, while participants supply their 'secret' ingredients. Favre said, "We are now in the process of getting things together for the April 28 date, so we can use any type of donations, such as cash, etc.

"This is a very important fund raiser for the Cancer Society and we can use the help from everyone. Just give Barbara a call at 467-9092, or Sandra, 467-4425.

There will also be a silent auction this year with Marilyn Finch, Whitney Bank's Waveland branch manager chairing. Anyone interested in donating an item, or items for the silent auction can contact her at 467-6578.

Margaret Hadden, who selects the judges, reported thus far for the Bean Cook-Off include, Rear Admiral Thomas Donaldson, USN; District Attorney Cono Corona; Mrs. Leo Seal, Jr.; and Prima Planche', Hancock County Library executive director.

Judges for the corn bread will be Darlene Underwood, Betsy Ashman and Ellis C. Cuevas Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) members will be on hand to assist at the event.

Jimmie Ladner, Jr. had served the two previous years as general chair; he followed Tim Kellar, who also served two years.

Among the original organizers of the first few cook-offs were Janet McQueen, Anne Schmidt Andry and Basil Kennedy.

McQueen and Andry were chairwomen of the event for several years.

Cuevas' Quotes

by Ellis C. Cuevas
Publisher Emeritus

There are only three days left for Mardi Gras 2003, with Tuesday being the finale.

In Pass Christian, the annual St. Paul Carnival Association's is set to roll at 1 p.m. this afternoon.

It is a very lengthy parade with over 100 units and one of the more popular parades on the Sunday before Mardi Gras.

There is lots of viewing area for the Pass parade and there should be a good turnout.

On Tuesday, Mardi Gras Day, through the streets of Bay St. Louis, the Krewe of Real People is scheduled to begin at 1 p.m.

Real People has a lengthy route through the heart of the City of Bay St. Louis. It begins on Bookter Street, Bookter to Necaise Avenue to Main Street, Main to Beach Boulevard, Beach to Union, Union to Railroad to Third to Sycamore, Sycamore to Old Spanish Trail, Old Spanish Trail to Booker to disband.

I hope everyone will have a great time for the final Mardi Gras parades.

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's February Coffee Call was very interesting, as it featured Dr. William Lewis, president of Pearl River Community College.

Others from PRCC were, Dr. Frank Grant, Academics Dean; Don Welsch, Vocational Director; Col. Ed Feltcher, Work Studies Director; and Frank Ladner, PRCC Board of Trustees President.

Coffee Call host for the breakfast was Second Street Elementary and it was well attended by folks concerned about education.

Chamber President John P. Baxter shared the welcoming of everyone, as did Bay Middle School Principal Rick Reed.

Dr. Sherry Ponder, Chairman, Hancock County Chamber of Commerce Education Committee, introduced Dr. Lewis.

Dr. Lewis gave an overview of PRCC and the things they want to do in the future in Hancock County.

Following the breakfast, Dr. Lewis' group joined several community leaders in a tour of Hancock County planned by the chambers education committee.

The purpose of the tour was to showcase resources and explore ways by working together. This would be a greater community presence for PRCC to foster community education, community college academic programs and workforce development.

Casino Magic, Bay St. Louis provided complimentary transportation.

Among the facilities and places visited included: the Bay St. Louis-Waveland Alternative School; Hancock County Main Library; Stennis International Airport; the David McDonald Training Center at Port Bienville; Bay High School's (CIAP) program; and several other possibilities.

A luncheon was provided by the Chamber of Commerce and the Hancock County Port & Harbor Commission at Casino Magic's Jourdan River Grill.

Others joining in on the tour included, John Baxter, Tish Williams, Dr. Sherry Ponder, Dr. Kim Stasny, Dr. Gaynell Roberts, Mike Turner, Chuck Benvenuti and myself. One thing is for sure, since Dr. Lewis has taken over as president at PRCC, a big difference has been made in its relationship with Hancock County.

Indications are that many more good things are about to happen in the near future too.

Aiming high for Mississippi's flying future

In 1935, two young record that stood for 62 years, totaling a distance of 52,000 miles, equivalent to flying twice around the Earth. Needless to say, they also invented air-to-air refueling in the process. The publicity was international. Mississippi aviation had arrived. Their plane, the "Ole Miss," is now displayed at the Smithsonian.

From the Senate

By U.S. Sen. Trent Lott

Yet, just as in Fred and Al Key's day, many of Mississippi's airports and other aviation infrastructure need some attention right now - not necessarily from the general public or media, but from Washington. We need some new runways and taxiways. We need some new terminals, and we need an expansion of jet service at airports around the state. Different from the Keys, I hope to improve Mississippi's aviation facilities by working on the ground, in my new role as chairman of the U.S. Senate Commerce Committee's Aviation Subcommittee.

As the Key brothers saw, Mississippi's continued development depends on the availability of good airports and attractive air service. Today one of the first questions international companies ask when inquiring about Mississippi is: "How are your airports?" In fact, the proximity of Canton to the Jackson International Airport was one of the reasons Nissan Motor Company eventually choose Madison County for their new $1 billion auto plant, which will begin production this spring. Airport availability also helped Mississippi court other international companies like Hyundai and Toyota, though airports were not the ultimate cause of their selection of other states. In almost every circumstance,

Parades are great, trash is shameful

After last year's Nereids parade, Dick and I decided that we would have to forego the fun of Mardi Gras parades. Watching thoughtless, ignorant, inconsiderate people toss their trash at their feet was simply too hazardous for our blood pressure. It ruined our enjoyment of the marvelous floats, costumes and pageantry of the festive occasion.

This year, we agreed that we should avoid U.S. 90 for a couple of days after the parade, for the same reason. Driving along the parade route on the day after, it turned our stomachs to see the cans, bottles, fast food containers and other trash that littered the highway.

Ordinarily, we are proud to show off our chosen home town to out-of-state visitors. Today, we would be ashamed.

Waveland police did a great job

Our family would like to commend the Waveland Police Force for a wonderful job in protecting us after last Sunday's parade. While being accosted by a group of intoxicated, out of control young men, we were rescued by eleven terrific officers. They arrived on foot and in cars in response to our 911 call. The Waveland Fire Department and Biloxi Police also assisted. Because they arrived so quickly and took control of the situation we all came through unharmed. Our special THANKS to: Brett Ladner, Mike Prendergast, Bill Roessling, Elfren Acosta, Eddy Peterson, Jill Barnett, Casey Favre, Brent Anderson, Mac Coward and the Biloxi officers and Waveland Firefighters who came to our rescue. Y'all are the BEST!

Our letters policy

The Sea Coast Echo welcomes comments from its readers. Letters must be signed and include address or telephone number. Letters should be brief, preferably typewritten and double-spaced. Only one letter per writer per month. The editor reserves the right to edit or reject letters. Letters of thanks, expressions of appreciation and political endorsements are inappropriate.

Parents should know what kids are doing

To whom it may concern: The parents of teen-age boys with skateboards who frequent the N. Second Street and DeMontluzin Ave. area until midnight should question their sons about what they know about the brutal killing in my driveway of a kitten which belonged to a neighbor's four-year-old daughter. This occurred the night of Wednesday, Feb. 12.

Also, the cat of another neighbor was left for dead, but after extensive surgery, has made a partial recovery.

Both attacks took place on private property, where the cats were bothering no one. The boys know who was responsible for these savage and malicious acts.

The four-year-old girl has suffered a heartbreak which should never have happened.

Nothing but trouble can come when children in their early teens are allowed to roam the streets unsupervised until midnight or later.

Lott -- flying high

airports regularly play a pivotal role, not only in personal transportation, but also in job creation.

As chairman of the Aviation Subcommittee, I look forward to helping author the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Reauthorization Bill this year. I hope we can do this in a way that will specifically help improve regional airports and air service in rural states like Mississippi. In recent years, Senator Thad Cochran and I have been very successful in securing federal AIP (Airport Improvement Program) funds for our state's airports.

These funds are specifically to upgrade airport facilities and equipment. Yet, there is much work to do. We must make sure essential air service is kept in places like the Hattiesburg/Laurel regional airport. We are also courting new air cargo business at places like Gulfport-Biloxi Airport, Stennis Airport and Olive Branch Airport, which are well positioned for this niche because of their proximity to metropolitan New Orleans and Memphis.

I want to ensure that Mississippi's larger passenger airports like Biloxi/Gulfport and Jackson International have the resources they need to implement new federally-mandated security standards. Already the Jackson airport is spending $45,000 a month for federally-mandated security measures, yet the airport is receiving no financial assistance for this security from the federal government. These unfunded mandates are requiring airports nationwide to finance their security out of the AIP program funds which are supposed to be for physical upgrades. Furthermore, I want to continue working with airlines, encouraging them to add new service or expand and upgrade existing service in Mississippi.

We must build on our past success which includes the addition of Southwest Airlines service to Jackson a few years ago, and the expansion of jet service at Golden Triangle Regional Airport shortly thereafter as well as yet another jet service expansion at Golden Triangle last week. Also, I was pleased to announce that jet service will be returning to the very airport where the famous Keys made aviation history. Delta Airlines will reintroduce air service to Meridian's Key Field beginning in a few weeks.

Just as in the Keys' day, we'll have to fight hard to get Mississippi's aviation facilities the attention they deserve. Yet I figure if two Mississippians in a little flimsy plane can fly nonstop for a month, then getting the ear of appropriators in Washington may not be so bad.

Senator Lott welcomes any questions or comments about this column. Write to: U.S. Senator Trent Lott, 487 Russell Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510 (Attn: Press Office).

IHM Cites Compretta for Education Funding

THE SEA COAST ECHO
State Rep. J.P. Compretta, (Bay St. Louis) has been cited by the Institutions of Higher Learning (IHL) for his leadership in making Mississippi one of a few states in the country to increase financial aid in the last two years by eleven percent or more. Representative Compretta is a member of the House Ways and Means Committee.

According to a recent study by the National Study for Public Policy and Higher Education, Mississippi is one of eleven states that has increased state student Financial Aid eleven percent or more. While tuition has increased throughout the country, Mississippi has increased State Student Financial Aid by eleven percent during fiscal Years 2002 and 2003 making Mississippi a leader in state student grants for higher education. A total of twenty-three states increased state grant aid to students with the range of increases from three to ninety-four percent and seventeen states decreased financial aid with the range of decreases from two to twenty-four percent in the last two years. The other ten states either have no grant program or had no change in their appropriation for their state program.

Commissioner-elect of Higher Education, Dr. David Potte, commented on the results of the study, "Financial aid is essential for our state's students and the Mississippi Legislature and Governor have distinguished themselves with our State Student Financial Aid Program, which has increased eleven percent in the last two years despite state budget challenges. At least 76 percent of our public university students receive some form of financial aid, and the state program is an essential part of Mississippi students having access to higher education in our state," said Potter.

Access to Mississippi's state financial aid program, including applications and deadlines, can be obtained on the IHL website at www.ihl.state.ms.us. The site also includes a searchable scholarship data base for scholarships provided by the universities. Currently, 34,682 Mississippians receive a Mississippi Student Financial Aid Award.

Throughout his service, Representative Compretta has been a strong advocate for education and was part of the historic action by the Mississippi Legislature in making education a priority by funding Kindergarten through graduate school first during the first month of the 2003 Legislative Session. Such action is expected to be a precedent.

IHL had been informed late in 2002 that the LBC recommended a fourth year of cuts in the Fiscal Year 2004 funding, which the Board has said would have been, disastrous on top of the $98.3 million reduction which put IHL in a funding crisis. In order to recover a portion of the state budget cuts, the Board was forced to raise tuition 30 percent in the last three years for resident students.

Dr. Potter commented on what the appropriations means for the future, "By making education funding a priority during the first thirty days of the Legislative Session, our legislators are setting a precedent which provides hope and stability for our entire public education system from kindergarten through graduate school. Education is the key to a better life for our citizens who have been seeking our degrees in record numbers for the past seven years. As a result of the action by the Legislature and the Governor, Mississippi is now on a path to recover and go forward by making education central to its future," said Potter.

"The Legislature has shown that despite state budget shortfalls, Mississippi is doing business differently wad education is in fact, first, among the budget needs of our state," added Potter.

Pass Christian Child Celebrates Disney Wish

Eight-year-old Marvin Woods will depart on Saturday, March 8th for his dream destination - Disney World. Marvin, who suffers from Hunter's Syndrome, is having his wish granted by the Make-A-Wish Foundation® of Mississippi and wish sponsor, Cruisin' The Coast. He will be treated to an exciting adventure at Disney World, where he will have the opportunity to meet Mickey and Minnie and all of the other wonderful Disney characters.

On Friday, Marvin enjoyed a wish party at Chuck E. Cheese in Gulfport. At his party, Marvin celebrated his wish coming true with friends and family. Make-A-Wish volunteers Dan Seever and Paul Arguolles, Cruisin' The Coast Representatives and Make-A-Wish Gulf Coast Field Office Coordinator Shellie Moses presented Marvin with airline tickets, expense money, and special gifts for his trip.

Marvin's wish is being sponsored by Cruisin' The Coast. During the 7th Annual Cruisin' The Coast event a 1939 Chevy Master Coupe was raffled with the proceeds benefiting the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Mississippi. The money donated by Cruisin' The Coast is being used to grant wishes for children like Marvin on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Marvin and his family will depart from the New Orleans airport, headed to the Magic Kingdom on Saturday, March 8th. The little boy will spend six nights and seven days enjoying the Disney parks and Universal Studios.

The Make-A-Wish Foundation® of Mississippi is a non-profit organization that grants wishes to children who suffer from life-threatening illnesses to enrich the human experience with hope, strength and joy. Last year, the Mississippi chapter made wishes come true for 105 children in our state. The Make-A-Wish Foundation® of America is the country's largest wish-granting organization.

Wildcats win state MACJC championship over Northwest

THE SEA COAST ECHO

Pearl River Community College won its third MACJC men's basketball championship in eight years here Thursday, as the Wildcats pulled off a thrilling second-half rally to take a 92-83 see-saw victory over the Northwest Rangers.

The title marked the fourth in history for the Wildcats and the fifth state championship in 13-year head coach Richard Mathis's career.

Mathis is no stranger to Ranger basketball. His 1997 Wildcats fell 116-113 to Northwest in triple overtime in Poplarville for the prestigious title, but his 1998 group returned the favor the following year in Senatobia and dumped the host Rangers 91-86 for the championship.

"All championships are nice, but this one is especially sweet," said Mathis, who has also won a women's title at East Mississippi and a men's title at Northeast Mississippi. "Back at the start of the year, I wasn't so sure about this group's ability to go all the way. I knew they were very athletic, but we just couldn't shoot."

"But they worked their tails off and have proved to me that they are a bunch of achievers that pulled together for a common goal."

It was a battle of surges. The Wildcats jumped out to a shocking 16-2 lead with just over three minutes gone in the contest only to see the Rangers bounce back with a 20-5 run to go up 22-21 with 12 minutes left before the intermission. Seven minutes later, Ray Selva of Baton Rouge sank a pair of free throws to tie it up at 31-31 with 4:55 left, but Northwest ended the half with an impressive 11-6 run to grab a 42-37 halftime lead.

Mathis said his talented team "became too hyped too early."

"We're the kind of team that can start a game with lots of energy on both sides of the ball, but we can't sustain that level very long," he said.

"Besides, Northwest is an excellent basketball team and I knew they were going to make a run on us."

PRCC's Justin Miller of North Forrest hit the opening bucket of the second half, then teammate Yandell Brown of Eastman, Ga., hit one of his two treys on the night to tie at 42-42 with less than a minute gone, but Northwest's Marcus Avant immediately answered with a three pointer to regain the lead.

Avant's trey kick started a 31-17 run by the Rangers to build their largest lead of the night 73-59 with 8:55 left.

Three minutes later, Brown capped a 14-zip run to tie it up at 73-73. Carlos Cole of Hattiesburg High scored seven straight unanswered points during the spurt, including one trey.

The score was deadlocked two more times over the next minute the last time when James Ball of Hattiesburg High hit a bucket to tie at 77-77, then followed with a pair of free throws to put PRCC up for good.

Brown scored four straight points to make it 83-77 with 1:10 left, but Northwest's Trey Ivy scored his only points of the night when he pulled off a three-point play to pull the Rangers within three with a minute left. But it was all over but the crying. Reggie Gaddis hit the last of his four treys with 15 seconds left to end Northwest's scoring, then Selva ended the game with four straight points.

Pearl River's women and men will enter their respective Region XXIII Tournaments at Mississippi College in Clinton which starts Monday and concludes Thursday.

Bay girls return to state basketball title showdown; Lady Hawks fall

BY: JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

Jackson, MS - The Bay High Lady Tigers passed a major mental hurdle, and won their 13th straight game, reaching the Class 4A state title contest on Friday in the "Big House" with an exciting 67-60 victory over Jackson Province. The Hancock Lady Hawks, however, were turned back by their nemesis Jackson Murrah 73-63.

It was a game of momentum swings in the Bay High/Province contest. One team would make a run and then committ some turnovers to allow the other team to make its run. But, the season remains a magical one for the Bay High Lady Tigers (34-1) as they have one game left in their season of dreams.

Last season, the Lady Tigers were edged out for the state title by Province by a single basket, 60-58. That memory seemed to haunt the Lady Tigers as they played a little tight.

The third period was a decisive one for Bay High as Kendra Reed went out with her fourth foul with a little over four minutes to play in the quarter. At that point Bay High held a 40-36 advantage. It was then that Province made a move. In about four minutes time, the Lady Rams had forged an eight point lead on Bay High until Stephanie Reed and Destiny Porter came to the rescue.

Porter hit a basket inside on the Rams and Reed nailed two huge three-pointers to bring the Lady Tigers within three at the end of the period 51-48. However, they still missed Kendra Reed inside.

Bay High head coach Debbie Triplett stated, "I have played Kendra Reed with four fouls in an entire game before. But I did not want to risk that in this game. I felt if we could hang in there until about four minutes left in the game, I would put her back in at that time."

Sure enough, Bay High held on and Reed went back in. When Reed came back in the game the Lady Tigers were nursing a one-point lead 56-55. Bay High worked the ball down low and hit from the outside to get their balance back.

Stephanie Reed connected on a deep three and Kendra Reed added a bucket in the paint to give Bay High a 61-55 lead with 3:11 left in the game. At that point, the Lady Rams had to play catchup; however, they were not going to catch Bay High this time.

Bay held a 33-28 advantage at halftime after falling behind in the first period 22-18. Kendra Reed scored 19 points to lead the Tigers followed by Carmen Labat with 18 points. Stephanie Reed scored 17 points with 15 of them coming from behind the arc.

Triplett recalled, "It was a back and forth game between the two teams. We may have been a little tight tonight remembering what happened last year against Province, and thinking it could happen again. Province is a very good team and we knew that we would have to go through them. Hopefully, next week we will play a little looser."

The Lady Tigers will play the winner of the Canton/Yazoo City game in the Class 4A state finals on Thursday, March 6 at 6:30pm in Jackson.

The Hancock Lady Hawks fell behind Murrah early and couldn't seem to get in a groove. Murrah's Diamond Rogers scored 12 points in the opening period to lead the Lady Mustangs to a 19-13 advantage. Murrah built a 33-26 lead at the break.

Hancock head coach Pam Slayton commented, "We did not shoot well. We gave them a good run but we just did not play well."

The Lady Hawks could not quite break the six-point barrier during the game. Devin Necaise nailed a three-pointer at the end of the third period to make the score 47-41 heading into the final period. However, the Lady Mustangs kept the distance and won 73-63 in the end. As time dwindled down, turnovers became a problem for Hancock.

The last two games of 2003 were a mirror image of 2002 as Hancock lost to Wayne County in the South

State finals and were defeated by Jackson Murrah in the quarter-finals of the state tournament. The Lady Hawks finish an outstanding season with a 25-11 record.

Facts About The BIBLE

PROPHETSTHERE WERE COMMUNITIES OF PROPHETS WHO LIVED, STUDIED, AND
WORSHIPED TOGETHER. WE FIND MENTION
OF IT IN FIRST SAMUEL (10:5).
THESE PROPHETS LIVED IN GIBEAH AND WERE VISITED BY SAUL. IN FACT, SAUL,
BEFORE HE WAS ANOINTED KING,
PROPHESIED WITH THEM ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS. THE PROPHETS SPENT
ALL THEIR TIME IN STUDY AND WOR-SHIP. THEY FARMED A LITTLE BUT MOST OF THEIR FOOD WAS DONATED BY PEOPLE IN THE COMMUNITY ROUN-
ABOUT. LATER IN THE NORTHERN KING-DOM MORE PROPHETIC COMMUNITIES
MADE THEIR APPEARANCE FOR A BRIEF WHILE. THEY MAY HAVE BEEN
FOUNDED BY ELIJAH FROM THE WOODS
OF THE EARLIER SOCIETIES FROM THE
DAYS OF SAMUEL. THESE LATER MEM-BERS WERE DESIGNATED "SONS OF THE PROPHETS."

"Happy is the husband of a good wife; the number of his days will be doubled — A good wife is a great blessing; she will be granted among the blessings of the man who fears the Lord. Whether rich or poor, his heart is glad, and at all times his face is cheerful — Like the sun rising in the heights of the Lord, so is the beauty of a good wife in her well-ordered home."

At a number of wedding ceremonies over the years, Marjorie "Margie" Hebert Simon must have heard those words from chapter 26 of the book of Sirach. If we are to judge by the outcomes of Margie's life as a wife and mother, she must have meditated often on those words of Sirach and made a conscious effort to follow their prescription in every phase of her life.

When their youngest, Glyness, was but two years old, Margie's husband, Glenver, was killed in a tragic fire when he mistakenly ran years old.

Being both mother and father is one of the most daunting of all tasks, but Margie came as close as anyone in achieving it. Having been close to various members of both the Hebert and Simon families, and especially since Glenver was my classmate in elementary school, I often had a ringside seat and was privileged to be a support to Margie and her children.

Well, I thought I had witnessed some of the finest hours of a mother in action with her children; yet, it got more intense on January 20, 1990. A state trooper in Baton Rouge, Margie's older son Michael was driving with his wife Brenda and their three sons to see the big basketball game between LSU and Notre Dame in the Louisiana Super Dome in New Orleans.

In unstable, rainy weather, their car rear-ended a Winn-Dixie 18-wheeler which had stopped for an accident on an Interstate 10 bridge, killing Michael and Brenda instantly but somehow sparing the boys who were riding in back. Without counsel or questions, Margie took Marcus, Brandon and Michael, Jr. under her wings at the tender ages of 5, 9 and 12.

Had Margie birthed the three boys, the bond between her and them could not have been stronger, more respectful, more appreciative, more obedient and more overall loving. It was simply amazing to observe three youngsters who worshipped their new mother and catered to her every wish.

Even the occasional grumbling or whining as expected of a typical boy was strongly tempered with deep respect, quick regret and an immediate look back toward Margie for forgiveness and absolution. Whereas this task should have been fraught with negative stress and the luckless, burdened feelings of a tired grandmother, it was an inspiring thing of beauty to watch.

Since "a tree is known by its fruit," (Matthew 12:33) Margie stood out constantly as the just people whose praises are sung in the first Psalm: "They are like a tree planted near streams of water, that yields its fruit in season; its leaves never wither; whatever they do prosper."

Scripture Says...

By Ed Young

The Throne of Grace

"Let us, therefore, come boldly unto the Throne of Grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." (Heb.4:16)

The Born Again believer can boldly approach with confidence, the throne of the Lord Jesus, and make their request known. Can you imagine the fact that a Christian who may be troubled in mind, body, or spirit can have a downright, good old fashioned talk with the LORD OF THE UNIVERSE.

"Be anxious for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your request be known unto God." (Philp.4:6)

"Cast all your cares upon Him, for He cares for you." (1Peter 5:7)

Just as you would go and talk to your earthly father, surely your heavenly Father is much more concerned and certainly able to answer your request with wisdom. It boggles one's mind to think we can approach this Heavenly Throne and know that Jesus is eager and willing to help us. However, we must understand this: The Lord says: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways, my ways saith the Lord." (Isa.55:8) So expect the answer to be with great wisdom and understanding.

God bless you.

The "Word" for the Week
Illumination without the Bible

Dennis J. Prutow • Box 303, Sterling, KS 67579

When you first pick up the Bible, it seems like a jumble. There is poetry and history. There are little proverbs and long essays in the form of letters. And so many subjects are covered. It's all very confusing. Is there any system or pattern behind what is written in the Bible? Yes there is. The first thing to realize is that the author of the Bible is God Himself. And "God is not a God of confusion" (1 Corinthians 14:33). He has not given us a book which is a mass of confused letters and poems. God also says, "Let all things be done properly and in an orderly manner" (1 Corinthians 14:40). As a result, there is order in the Bible. There is not confusion. And so, when you study the Bible, you see that God has a plan for the world. And part of God's plan involves the conflict between man and that fallen angel called the devil. But God's plan also involves the work of His Son.

Before His Son entered the world, God's angel said, "You shall call His name Jesus, for it is He who will save His people from their sins" (Matthew 1:21). The Bible also says that Jesus partook of flesh and blood "that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil; and might deliver those who through fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives" (Hebrews 2:14-15). Yes, there is a system of truth taught in the Bible. It is God's plan for salvation. "It is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes" (Romans 1:16). And so you need to read and study the Bible. You need to understand the teachings of the Bible. It tells you God's plan of salvation through Jesus Christ.

Ledoux

Marcus, the youngest, is now 19 years old and able to fend for himself.

That status of independence is not lost on him as he and his brothers have to say goodbye to their mother for the second time, this time being every bit as difficult as the first time. At no time did Margie appear to them to be their grandmother. That title was subsumed and totally transformed into mother.

We can all figure that, somehow, in some ways, there was a cumulative drag on Margie's health, stamina and physical constitution during the trying total of years, beginning with Glenver's death and peaking with the death of her son Michael and his wife Brenda. That heavy drag eventually surfaced in a stroke which struck unexpectedly within the past year.

It was all downhill health-wise from there, as Margie become completely incapacitated on one side, lost most of her ability to speak, and could no longer remember and think clearly. My last visit with her was very painful, even with my repeated teasing to which she could not respond.

A sterling mother to two generations of children, a prized family member to the Heberts and Simons, and a treasured friend to many near and far, Margie hangs in our memory as an outstanding mother, a stalwart Christian and a pleasant, comfortable person who always brightened the atmosphere.

As do the members of her family and her friends, I feel privileged to have known Margie, to have broken bread with her and her family on occasion, and to have shared some of her burdens of grief and trials. I can easily see within myself that I am a better person, a more God-fearing person for having crossed her path of faith, of trust, of hope and enduring love.

Thank God for people like Margie who help us ease our way through the thorns among the roses, making our lives brighter, more meaningful, more livable, with as much joie de vivre as we can expect in this valley of tear.

GINs announces lifeguard recruitment program

Gulf Islands National Seashore (GINs) has started its lifeguard recruitment program for the summer of 2003. Gulf Islands has 12 seasonal lifeguard positions every summer — nine for the Florida District and three for the Mississippi District.

This year, the Seashore hopes to begin coverage as early as March 14 in the Florida District at two popular guarded beaches: Langdon Beach at the Fort Pickens area and Johnson Beach at the Perdido Key area.

Superintendent Jerry Eubanks stated, "If we can hire four guards by March 14, we will be able to provide coverage five days per week at these two areas when visitation picks up around spring break. We hope to hire another five positions in Florida and three in Mississippi to begin in early May. Then coverage will include Opal Beach in the Santa Rosa area in Florida and West Ship Island in Mississippi."

Lifeguarding with the park is a great opportunity and a great way to make extra money for college or for the summer. The starting pay, depending on experience, is $9.72-$10.91 per hour.

Those who are interested in applying should contact the Park's personnel jobline at 850-934-2601 or obtain information on-line at <http://www.usajobs.opm.gov>.

Hancock's Local Newspaper since 1892

Advertising is an investment in the success of your business. Every business has some kind of competition, either within the town, nearby city or from mail order firms. Your potential customers are being courted by your competitors. If you do not invite those customers to do business with you, they are likely to forget you and buy elsewhere. It is not uncommon for consumers to switch their trading from one store to another. Advertising helps to keep old customers and equally as important, make new ones.

Our community is constantly growing which means that potential customers are moving into the market area all the time. Advertising gives these newcomers a reason to visit your store.

Most businesses budget for their advertising expenses just as they do for other necessities such as rent, phones, etc. Smart business people realize that advertising is imperative to keep their business growing.

Another reason to advertise is that advertising is news! You profit by telling our readers what is new in your store. Through advertising, you can let a wide audience know the product lines you carry, the quality of your merchandise, the completeness of your service and the character of your store.

If you have something to sell, then you have something to advertise. When you have nothing to advertise, you are out of business. Advertising is designed to build your business and works best when it is repeated regularly. Consistent advertising pays off!

Now that you know some of the reasons to advertise, you're probably wondering how you can advertise most effectively. Surveys show that ads in local newspapers have more impact than in any other medium. The Sea Coast Echo goes into the majority of the homes in Hancock County. The Sea Coast Echo is full of interesting reading, it is a part of our community. People like to read about people and The Sea Coast Echo is full of pictures and stories about local people. The most important reason to advertise in The Sea Coast Echo is that our readers are your customers.

If you're looking for the best advertising value for your money, then you should contact the advertising department at The Sea Coast Echo. One of our advertising representatives will be happy to discuss the many advertising options offered by The Sea Coast Echo. For more information you may call 467-5474, Monday through Friday 8am to 5pm, or stop by our office at 124 Court Street, Bay St. Louis.

Since 1892, The Sea Coast Echo is proud to be a part of your community.

B.B. King coming to Casino Magic BSL

THE SEA COAST ECHO

B.B. King brings his special style of the blues to Casino Magic Bay St. Louis

Friday and Saturday, March 21 and 22, each concert beginning at 9 p.m. Tickets are $29.95, $34.95 and $39.95 and are available at the Casino Magic Box Office or any Ticketmaster location. King has such classics as "Payin' The Cost To Be The Boss," "The Thrill Is Gone," "How Blue Can You Get," "Everyday I Have The Blues," and "Why I Sing The Blues," which are concert and fan staples.

For more than half a century, Riley B. King - better known as B.B. King - has defined the blues for a worldwide audience. Since he started recording in the 1940s, he has released over 50 albums, many of them classics.

He was born on a plantation in Itta Bena, Mississippi in 1925, he spent his youth, playing on street corners for dimes, and would sometimes play in as many as four towns a night.

In 1947, he hitchhiked to Memphis, TN, to pursue his music career because Memphis was where every important musician of the South gravitated.

B.B. stayed with his cousin Bukka White, one of the most celebrated blues performers of his time, who schooled B.B. further in the art of the blues. B.B.'s first big break came in 1948 when he performed on Sonny Boy Williamson's radio program on KWEM out of West Memphis.

This led to steady engagements at the Sixteenth Avenue Grill in West Memphis, and later to a ten-minute spot on Memphis radio station WDIA. "King's Spot," became so popular, it was expanded and became the "Sepia Swing Club." Soon B.B. needed a catchy radio name.

What started out as Beale Street Blues Boy was shortened to Blues Boy King, and eventually B.B. King.

In the mid-1950s, while B.B. was performing in Twist, Arkansas, two men got into a fight, knocking over a kerosene stove and setting fire to the hall. B.B. raced outdoors to safety with everyone else, then realized that he left his beloved $30 acoustic guitar inside, so he rushed back inside the burning building to retrieve it, narrowly escaping death.

When he later found out that the fight had been over a woman named Lucille, he decided to give the name to his guitar to remind him never to do a crazy thing like fight over a woman.

Ever since, each one of B.B.'s trademark Gibson guitars has been called Lucille.

Over the years, B.B. has developed one of the world's most identifiable guitar styles.

His every-note-counts phrasing, has been a model for thousands of players, from Eric Clapton to George Harrison to Jeff Beck.

B.B. mixes traditional blues with jazz, swing, and mainstream pop into his own unique sound.

In B.B.'s words, "When I sing, I play in my mind; the minute I stop singing orally, I start to sing by playing Lucille."

B.B. was inducted into the Blues Foundation Hall of Fame in 1984 and into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1987.

He received NARAS' Lifetime Achievement Grammy Award in 1987, and has received honorary doctorates from Tougaloo (MS) College in 1973; Yale University in 1977; Berkley

College of Music in 1982; Rhodes College of Memphis in 1990 and Mississippi Valley State University in 2002. In 1992, he received the National Award of Distinction from the University of Mississippi.

He was nominated for two more Grammy awards this year. B.B. continues to tour extensively, averaging over 250 concerts per year around the world.

Don't miss B.B. King at Casino Magic Bay St. Louis Friday and Saturday, March 21 and 22. Must be 21 to attend.

Earth Fest 2003 at Audubon Zoo: Celebrating our World

THE SEA COAST ECHO

Audubon Zoo celebrates our world during Earth Fest, coming up March 22 and 23 at the Zoo at 6500 Magazine Street, New Orleans. Earth Fest is a fun way for people to learn about saving the environment. Exhibitors representing groups from the non-profit and governmental sectors as well as businesses involved with environmental issues will help Zoo visitors answer questions for prizes from McDonald's on the Earth Quest game, sponsored by McDonald's.

Other activities throughout the Zoo include the Litter Critters Tent ... hands-on family fun where toys are created from recyclable trash and the Eat-A-Bug tent, with live cooking demonstrations and free tastings.

Taste-tempting Louisiana fare (chicken and sausage gumbo, shrimp po-boys, crabcakes with crawfish sauce and more!) and local music from Irene Sage Band, Papa Grows Funk, Adam's Attic and Theresa Andersson will be featured during Earth Fest.

Folk artists from across the Southeast will debut works for sale such as bird houses, art and jewelry made of recycled materials and painted steel sculptures throughout the festival.

Thanks to the internet, the folk art can be pre-viewed on the artists' websites, listed below.

While at the Zoo, visitors will want to pay a visit to the Audubon Marketplace, where they can register to win a $100 shopping spree.

Audubon Zoo is located at 6500 Magazine Street in New Orleans.

Admission to Earth Fest is included in regular Zoo admission, which is $10 for adults, $5 for children ages 2-12 and $6 for seniors 65 years of age and over. Audubon Zoo members are admitted free of charge.
